I am an IB 1 student who approaches every responsibility with discipline, initiative, and compassion. I strive to give my best in every task I undertake and consistently aim to produce high-quality work. I am responsible, organized, and able to manage multiple commitments while maintaining strong relationships with peers and mentors. I am especially passionate about understanding people and supporting those who may be struggling. My long-term goal is to become a psychiatrist so I can help individuals especially underprivileged communities to navigate mental health challenges and lead healthier, more meaningful lives.
